An unusual domestic love mystery.
This is the purification and rebirth edition.

Mic (borrowed name) is a young man who attempted suicide and then lost his memory.
Neo is the temple worker who found Mic and took him in.
Mic enjoys a carefree lifestyle at the temple at first,
but his memory starts to trickle back before long.
Separately, Neo begins to uncover Mic's past and is slowly crushed beneath the weight of the knowledge.
"I'll never fall in love with Mic" he promises.
Does his heart agree...? As we put an end to the tale, this is where Mic and Neo's story begins.

The story until now *

Neo picks up Mic (borrowed name), a young man who failed an attempt at suicide and lost his memory. In the hazy fog of amnesia, Mic leaves behind the mysterious words “Rikako” and “I’m the one who killed Mic”. Using those clues, Neo has the matter investigated and learns that “Rikako” is dead and Miku is missing. A dark shadow looms as the truth unfolds around the money-filled kindergartner bag that Mic carries and the scattered memories of Mic’s past.
